Developed for the Border Community Alliance of Southern Arizona, this three-week educational program focuses on the U.S. immigration system and how it affects people across the world: People coming to the United States to visit, conduct business, obtain employment, seek asylum, and gain citizenship. Throughout each weekly session, special emphasis will be placed on immigration policies and consequences affecting the Borderland region of the southwest United States.

Week 1: History of U.S. Immigration. This session provides a brief review of the key events that have shaped US immigration policy, from the early English and Spanish settlements, through the rapid growth of a new nation, and to the ongoing uncertainties affecting immigration today.
