

US IMMIGRATION POLICY: YESTERDAY AND TODAY

WEEK 1 QUIZ

1. True or False. For a child born in the New World to be considered a citizen (or subject of the King) in either England or Spain, both parents of the child must be English or Spanish citizens, respectively.
2. In 1882, two important immigration laws were passed. One significantly accelerated immigration to the U.S. from _____, while the other completely eliminated all immigration from _____.
3. When was the last major U.S. legislation affecting immigration signed into law?
  - a. Less than 5 years ago
  - b. Over 10 years ago
  - c. Over 20 years ago
  - d. Over 30 years ago
4. Who was President when over 400,000 U.S. residents – including many U.S. citizens – were removed from the U.S. and deported to Mexico?
  - a. Dwight Eisenhower
  - b. Franklin Roosevelt
  - c. Herbert Hoover
  - d. George W. Bush
5. The right of U.S. citizenship based on being born in the United States is provided by:
  - a. Common Law based on Jus Soli (Right of Soil)
  - b. The Naturalization Law of 1802
  - c. The 14th Amendment to the Constitution
  - d. The Immigration Act of 1882
6. True or False. All Mexican citizens living within the Gadsden Purchase (including southern Arizona) were offered automatic U.S. citizenship if they remained in the now-U.S. territory.
7. During and immediately following World War II, Mexico provided temporary agricultural workers to the U.S. under a program called:
  - a. The Milagro Guest Worker Program
  - b. The Bracero Program
  - c. The H2A Visa Program
  - d. Operation Wetback