

US IMMIGRATION POLICY: YESTERDAY AND TODAY

WEEK 2 QUIZ

1. A person fleeing persecution and seeking admission at a U.S. port of entry is called:
 - a. An immigrant
 - b. A refugee
 - c. An asylee
 - d. An emergency visa applicant

2. In lieu of a visa, citizens of Mexico may use a _____ to enter the United States.
 - a. Border crossing card
 - b. Mexican passport
 - c. Matrícula Consular card

3. True or False. The H1B non-immigrant visa for professional workers eventually may be converted into a Permanent Resident Card.

4. Under current U.S. immigration law, lawful permanent residents (Green Card holders) can sponsor the following family members for permanent residency: (Pick as many that apply.)
 - a. Spouse and minor children
 - b. Unmarried sons and daughters (over 21)
 - c. Married sons and daughters (over 21), their spouses, and their minor children
 - d. Parents
 - e. Grandparents
 - f. Brothers and sisters (over 21), their spouses, and their minor children

5. How many non-immigrant visas are issued each year to citizens of Mexico?
 - a. Less than 1 million
 - b. More than 1 million
 - c. More than 10 million
 - d. More than 20 million

6. How many non-immigrant visas are issued each year to citizens of Canada?
 - a. Less than 1 million
 - b. More than 1 million
 - c. More than 10 million
 - d. More than 20 million