El Restaurantito

Chico Che

Hay un restaurantito, "Que comilonas"
Tacos de picadillo, y barbacoa
Hay tortas de aguacate y de jamón
Y sin faltar la birria, con su limón
Va gente de la talla, de Tacubaya
También de buena fe, de la Merced
Va gente de altura, la de Tacuba
Y de la lagunilla, que maravilla

Y una mesera, que se pasea, y se menea
Y al taco le da sabor
Hay chilaquiles, hay sopas, pozole
¿Qué gustan señores?
Estoy para servir a usted

Hay un restaurantito, "Que comilonas"
Tacos de picadillo, y barbacoa
Hay tortas de aguacate y de jamón
Y sin faltar la birria, con su limón
Va gente de colmillo, de Peralvillo
Va gente de apetito, los de Tepito
De muy buena garganta, de Tlanepantla
Y de muy buen antojo, del Abondojo

The Little Restaurant

Chico Che

There is a little restaurant, "What a Feast"
Picadillo tacos, and barbecue
There are cakes of avocado and ham
And without fail the stew, with its lime
People of stature go, from Tacubaya
Also of good faith, from Merced
People of height go, the ones from Tacuba
And from the lagoon, what a wonder

And a waitress, who walks around, and wiggles
And gives the tacos flavor
"There are chilaquiles, there are sopas, pozole.
What do you like gentlemen?
I am here to serve you"

There is a little restaurant, "What a Feast"
Picadillo tacos, and barbecue
There are cakes of avocado and ham
And without fail the stew, with its lime
People with eye teeth go, from Peralvillo
People of appetite go, those from Tepito
With very good throat, from Tlanepantla
And with very good craving, from Abondojo
