Verbos reflexivos

VERBOS REFLEXIVOS: Una introducción (An introduction to reflexive verbs)

Reflexive verbs will be covered in greater detail later, but here are a few reflexive verbs you can start with. For example, Sentarse is a reflexive verb meaning to sit (oneself) down:

Me siento	I sit down	Nos sentamos	We sit down
Te sientas	You sit down
Se sienta	He, she/it sits down	Se sientan	They sit down

As a shortcut to learning to use reflexive verbs, instead of conjugating each reflexive verb and inserting the right pronoun, you can use the infinitive form of the verb after a Power Verb:

Me voy a sentar	I need to sit down	Van a sentarse	I'm going to sit down
Te necesitan sentarte	You need to sit down	Van a sentarse	We're going to sit down
Necesitas sentarte	You need to sit down	Vas a sentarte	You're going to sit down
Necesita sentarse	He, she needs to sit down	Van a sentarse	He/she is going to sit down
Necesitan sentarse	They need to sit down	Van a sentarse	They're going to sit down

Reflexive verbs for daily activities

Lavarse	To wash oneself
Barbarse	To shave oneself
 ducharse	To shower oneself
Vestirse	To dress oneself

Reflexive verbs for physical movement

Sentarse	To sit down (sit oneself)
Levantarse	To stand up (stand oneself)
Acostarse	To lay down (lay oneself down)
Despertarse	To wake up (wake oneself)
Caerse	To fall (fall oneself)
Levarse	To leave (leave oneself)

Reflexive verbs for feelings and personal behaviors

Sentirse	To feel (feel oneself)
Preocuparse	To worry (worry oneself)
Comportarse	To behave (behave oneself)
Mejorarse	To improve (improve oneself)
Cuidarse	To take care (take care of oneself)

Reciprocal reflexive verbs

Apoyarse	To support each other
Ayudarse	To help each other
Conocerse	To know each other
Quedarse	To meet each other

Other common reflexive verbs

Limpiarse	To clean oneself
Dedicarse	To devote oneself
Lavarse	To bathe oneself
