

Recommended Spanish Video Channels

Butterfly Spanish with Ana

<https://www.butterflyspanish.com/>

Ana lives in Mexico City and has over 700,000 followers who watch her videos on You Tube. She has published over 100 free videos, and we use nearly one dozen in the Let's Speak Spanish class. Ana is engaging and personable, and she covers important conversation topics in a practical and effective way.

Basic Mexican Spanish with Diego & Efraín

https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL_bCOYvGkS4TJihJS_PekLKQ6zhHbl8Y8L

Diego and Efraín have developed a video style and rapport that is fun to watch while you learn so many things about the language as spoken in Mexico, as well as important aspects of popular culture.

Easy Spanish

<https://www.youtube.com/c/EasySpanish/playlists>

Spanish Around

https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCISd_O2_lqGmmo_lbt1uJw/featured

Juan Coronado and his friends Fer and Baruch are best-known for their street interviews, both in Mexico City and across the Spanish-speaking world. This technique allows you to hear the language and idiom as it is spoken everyday while learning many insights into local culture.

Spanish and Go

<https://spanishandgo.com/>

Jim and May share the Spanish language and culture from the joint perspective of a native Mexican and a native American. In addition to excellent conversation videos, they also share their travels in Mexico and other countries.

Spanish Academy TV

<https://www.youtube.com/c/SpanishAcademyTV/featured>

Spanish Academy TV and the teachers in the videos are part of Homeschool Spanish Academy in Guatemala. They produce excellent videos covering pronunciation and basic grammar.